

Cr Daniel Strickland

Daniel Strickland has proudly served on the Goulburn Mulwaree Council since his election in 2021, securing re-election for a second term in 2024.

With extensive senior leadership experience in community service organisations and a background as a former NSW Police Officer, Daniel currently holds a management position in the funeral industry. He is an award-winning community leader, recognised as the Goulburn Mulwaree Citizen of the Year in 2020 and the recipient of the NSW Government Community Service Award in 2019.

During his time in office, Daniel is committed to fostering a collaborative council that prioritises the needs of the community. He strives to be approachable and attentive to local concerns.

Daniel actively participates in various community initiatives, serving as a member of the Local Emergency Management Committee, a representative for the Tallong Progress Committee, and engaging with the Goulburn and Region Interagency meeting, Police Aboriginal Consultative Committee, and Goulburn and Region Suicide Prevention Network.

A resident of Goulburn since 2013, Daniel relocated from Sydney with his family. He has a passion for motor racing, cars, motorcycles, four-wheel driving, and enjoys spending time in the great outdoors.
