

Cr Daniel Strickland

Daniel Strickland was elected to Goulburn Mulwaree Council for the first time in 2021, and brings experience from the not-for-profit sector and his time as a Police Officer with the NSW Police Force.

He seeks to be a voice for our community, and to listen to residents' concerns and compliments in a genuine manner. Daniel was awarded the Goulburn Mulwaree Citizen of the Year Award in 2020, and involved in a variety of roles with the Goulburn & District Suicide Prevention Network, Goulburn Domestic and Family Violence Committee, Goulburn City Lilac Festival Committee, Community Drug Action Team and organisation of annual R U OK Day events among other community organisations.

Daniel has lived in Goulburn since 2013, after relocating to the region from Sydney with his family. He has a keen interest in cars and motorcycles, and enjoys riding his Harley Davidson in his spare time, as well as spending time with his family.
