

Goulburn Mulwaree Council's Councillor Profile

Councillor Leah Ferrara was voted onto council in 2016 for her first term.

Councillor Ferrara is a strong believer in a health community with excellent recreational areas for people to come together.

Leah is an active member of the Recreation Area Committee, and the Aquatic Centre working party. Councillor Ferrara is also involved in the Rocky Hill Museum and St Clair Museum working parties.

Councillor Ferrara's goals include helping to bring Goulburn into a more sustainable future and encouraging younger people to get more involved in their community. She hopes to do this by letting them know they have a voice, and that it will be heard when they use it.

In her spare time Leah loves to read take care of her rescue animals. She is also a passionate NRL fan and loves to watch and attend games.
