

Goulburn Mulwaree Council's Councillor Profile

Councillor Peter Walker is a passionate advocate for Goulburn who was elected to Council in 2016.

Cr Walker retired from full time employment in 2014. He was the CEO of the Goulburn Workers Club for nine years, and throughout this time he led several large renovations as well as being involved in the Goulburn Liquor Accord and the Goulburn Mulwaree Council Grants Committee. Cr Walker was also manager of Sand & Soil Goulburn, and has extensive experience in the construction industry.

Cr Walker is passionate about the community and has been president of the Challenge Foundation, a board member of Endeavour Industries and involved in the Trinity College community council.

Over the past year he has been heavily involved in the working parties for the Victoria Park masterplan and the Sports Precinct upgrade as a community member; Peter is keen to continue these projects as a Councillor.

Peter is married to Cath, has a son named Tom, and is a devoted fan of Cricket, AFL, Golf and Rugby League – where he follows the South Sydney Rabbitohs.
